The New Jersey Office of Travel & Tourism is offering one lucky reader and her guest a four-day, three-night trip to Atlantic Highlands, a town rich with Victorian architecture, gourmet restaurants and one of the largest public marinas on the East Coast. The trip includes round-trip airfare for two and a deluxe room at the Blue Bay Inn (an elegant, European-style boutique hotel), complimentary daily continental breakfast, one dinner for two at the hotel's Copper Canyon Restaurant, midsize car rental and $500 spending money, valued at $3,500.
